OPENING JUNE 2025

Two hotels, one estate

Location

Introducing Vestige's exclusive boutique sister properties on mellow Menorca. Occupying a delightfully rural and private estate in the heart of the island with easy access to hidden beaches and secret coves, Vestige Son Ermità and Binidufà combine two separate properties into one unique guest experience.

The beauty of Vestige's new offering is the opportunity for guests to enjoy facilities across both locations. Guests will be positively encouraged to make the most of everything on offer across the estate, from dining concepts to pool facilities.

Two hotels, one estate

Both 18th-century properties are set in prime positions within an 800-hectare estate sprinkled with hardy olive groves spread across a patchwork of rugged fields. Each property's history and legacy is honoured with a renovation that breathes with new life and new beginnings.

At the foot of a low-lying wooded hill, Vestige Binidufà is a typical Menorcan farmhouse, fashioned from red-hued stone and circled by a series of agricultural buildings. Renovated in a rustic-chic style that lets the location do all the talking, guests will feel cosseted by a sense of deep comfort and peace.

Circled by swaying palms beneath cerulean skies, Vestige Son Ermità rises majestically from its hilltop perch with heart-stopping (almost) 360-degree views over land and sea. With a south-facing aspect and sheltered central patio, its lofty position remains protected from the Tramuntana, Menorca's gusty northern wind. Son Ermità's design combines classic detailing with contemporary features for a sophisticated style.

Guests can access both properties via a private road to take advantage of all the facilities on offer. Offering sublime comfort and luxurious facilities guests will have access to two restaurants and two swimming pools. A high-tech gym and spa will open in 2025.

With 4.5km of coast to access within the estate, guests can enjoy practically exclusive use of five extremely quiet and peaceful beaches and calas. Perfect for picnics, swimming, snorkelling and strolling. Smaller boats can launch from here to explore the turquoise coast.

Restoration

Both properties are beautifully restored in typical Vestige fashion. The approach is dedicated to making every hotel shine by teasing out original details and adding modern design touches that help make each place unique yet part of a whole.

Part of the process is selecting antique furniture from the Madera Fernández family's extensive private collection. The brand also has an architect and design firm based in Madrid and it is an integral part of the restoration and design process to marry heritage furniture with contemporary bespoke pieces.

The team commissions local craftspeople to create original items made using traditional furniture-making methods, helping to preserve artisan skills and offering employment within the local community.

Guests have the choice of dining at either Son Ermità or Binidufà, each having their own culinary concept.

Son Ermità's restaurant will showcase the range of cultures that have shaped Menorca and its cuisine through history, from Moorish influences through to French and English touches. Here Vestige's chefs interpret classic dishes to create an imaginative fine-dining concept with the vibrant setting elevating the guest experience.

Binidufà's restaurant offers a farm-to-table dining experience with a fresh flexitarian approach. Making vegetables the star of the show, with the option to add meat or fish without it being a necessity, ensures meals are prepared using the best local ingredients highlighted by simple techniques. It also means guests leave the table feeling better than when they arrived.

Pool menus feature a selection of classic light bites with a bit of a twist, perfect for the informal and laid back setting. As always ingredients are ethically sourced and carefully prepared for maximum flavour.
