

Hotel Fasano Punta del Este

The international expansion of the Fasano brand began in 2010 with the opening of Hotel Fasano Las Piedras, in Uruguay. The La Barra region, in Punta del Este, was the scenario chosen for the awarded architectural project of Isay Weinfeld, which occupies a preserved area of 490 hectares. The Las Piedras structure privileges the integration between countryside and sea. After an operational restructure, the hotel will resume hospitality activities in 2016 with a new and more exclusive project, the Locanda Fasano.
